

Nashville Area Mission to the East Congo Annual Conference

July 14-28, 2017

Clergy and Laity of the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences are invited to participate in a mission to the East Congo Annual Conference. While in the East Congo you will become familiar with the great needs in the region. Everyone will participate for a few days in the construction of a women's center. You will be equipped to share with your local church and district how we can best support our brothers and sisters in the East Congo Annual Conference. Young adults are especially encouraged to participate (scholarships available).

Cost $4,500-$5,000 per person
